

National Center for Homeless Education

The National Center for Homeless Education (NCHE) is the U.S. Department of Education's information and technical assistance center in the area of homeless education.

NCHE is based at The SERVE Center at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG). The SERVE Center is a university-based research, development, dissemination, evaluation, and technical assistance center.

NCHE offers:

- A comprehensive website
www.serve.org/nche
- A homeless education listserv
www.serve.org/nche/listserv.php
- Webinars
www.serve.org/nche/web/group.php
- Face-to-face trainings
Email dbowman@serve.org
- A homeless education helpline 800.308.2145 or homeless@serve.org
- Publications and products
www.serve.org/nche/products.php

For State Coordinators

State Coordinators' Handbook

[www.serve.org/nche/
pr/sc_hb_2010.php](http://www.serve.org/nche/pr/sc_hb_2010.php)

*State Coordinators'
Handbook for LEA
Monitoring*

[www.serve.org/nche/
pr/sc_hb_mon.php](http://www.serve.org/nche/pr/sc_hb_mon.php)

Targeted technical assistance

Email [dbowman@
serve.org](mailto:dbowman@serve.org)

WEBSITE

LISTSERV

WEBINARS | TRAININGS

HELPLINE

PUBLICATIONS

Web: www.serve.org/nche Helpline: 800.308.2145 or homeless@serve.org

National Center for Homeless Education (NCHE)
The U.S. Department of Education's information and technical assistance center in the area of homeless education