SUBTITLE VII-B OF THE MCKINNEY-VENTO HOMELESS ASSISTANCE ACT (42 U.S.C. 11431 ET SEQ.)

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE MCKINNEY-VENTO ACT

1987	The Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act is signed into law, requiring states to review and revise policies to ensure the immediate school enrollment of homeless children and youth.
1990	The McKinney Act is amended, requiring states to eliminate enrollment barriers, and provide school access and support for academic success to students experiencing homelessness.
1994	The education portion of the Act is reauthorized by the Improving America's Schools Act, adding preschool services, greater parental input, and a focus on interagency collaboration.
2002	The education portion of the Act is reauthorized by Title X, Part C of the No Child Left Behind Act, strengthening legal requirements, and requiring all school districts to appoint a local liaison.
2015	The education portion of the Act is reauthorized by Title IX, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act, expanding school of origin rights to include public preschools and receiving schools.

RIGHTS OF ELIGIBLE CHILDREN AND YOUTH

- Right to immediate school enrollment even when records not present
- Right to remain in the school of origin, if in the student's best interest
- Right to receive transportation to and from the school of origin
- Right to receive support for academic success

FUNDING FOR STATES AND SCHOOL DISTRICTS

The U.S. Department of Education (ED) allocates McKinney-Vento funding annually to states based on the state's proportion of the Title I, Part A federal allocation.¹ States must subgrant funds competitively to school districts within the state to be used for program implementation at the district level.

- States must distribute no less than 75% of its annual McKinney-Vento allocation to local school districts in subgrants; a few minimally-funded states may reserve up to 50% of their allocation.
- Subgrants are awarded competitively based on need and the quality of the subgrant application.

Visit <https://nche.ed.gov/mv-auth-activities/> for a list of acceptable usages of subgrant funds as outlined in the McKinney-Vento Act.

¹ References to Title I, Part A are to Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, as amended by the Every Student Succeeds Act.

INTERAGENCY COLLABORATION

ED's EHCY Program collaborates with a variety of federal partners to serve children, youth, and families experiencing homelessness. The EHCY Program collaborates with other ED programs and offices, including the Title I, Part A Program; the Office of Special Education Programs; the Migrant Education Program; the Office of Federal Student Aid; and programs in the Office of Post-Secondary Education.

The EHCY Program also partners with other federal agencies through the U.S. Interagency Council on Homelessness (USICH). USICH coordinates the federal response to homelessness, working in close partnership with Cabinet Secretaries and other senior leaders across its 19 federal member agencies. Key federal partners of the EHCY Program include the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and the U.S. Department of Labor.
